DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: "lowest portion 51 of friction piece". Note, this reference number is also used for the threaded part of adjustment lever 39 shown in Figs. 3. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "51" has been used to designate both the seat post in Fig. 1A and the threaded part of adjustment lever 39 as shown in Fig 3. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

In page 10, on line 4, the "threaded part 51" should be relabeled --threaded part 15-- to correspond to the Figures, such as Fig. 2A.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 9 is objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 9, on lines 18-19, the phrase "allow said spring to be tightened" appears to be incorrect. It should be --allow said shaft to be tightened.--

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Swift (6,491, 606).

Art Unit: 3764

5. As to claim 9, swift discloses a stationary exercise bicycle having a frame including a cross bar (10), the frame supporting a seat (8) and handlebars (44), a working wheel (4), pedals (not shown), an adjustable friction piece (18) mechanically in contact with the working wheel and a tension and quick-brake comprising a friction adjusting shaft (206), a friction tightening nut (208), a flange (part of 210) and a friction adjusting spring (212) (see Fig. 2d & Col. 7, lines 24-39).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claim 10 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,612,970.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claim 10 discloses the same exercise bicycle having the same handlebar adjustment mechanism, but instead of having the same adjustable friction piece mechanically coupled to a working wheel, the friction piece in the instant application is coupled to a flywheel. At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to substitute a working wheel with a flywheel since they are functionally equivalent in providing inertia that can be adjustably resisted to provide varying degrees of exercise.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Forcillo '603 and '970 each disclose a similar exercise bicycle having an adjustable quick release braking mechanism (see Fig. 8).

Eschenbach '919 and Warner et al. '424 each disclose a stationary exercise bicycle having an adjustable braking mechanism that is actuated by an elongated shaft.
